BEING DISCIPLES OF JESUS

Fr. Tirso Villaverde
Pastor

FROM OUR PASTOR

Happy Feast of the Holy Trinity!

I know this update is rather after the fact, but I thought I would share it still for the sake of those who may not have heard yet. I refer to the recent announcement of the Cardinal's decision that was part of Renew My Church. As you recall, the seven parishes in Tinley and Orland—Our Lady of the Woods, St. Stephen Deacon and Martyr, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Elizabeth Seton, St. George, St. Michael, and us—were grouped together and over a couple of months had multiple conversations. The conversations were summarized in a report that was ultimately presented to the Cardinal to await his final decision. The report contained recommendations and important insights offered by representatives from each parish. On May 11, the Cardinal released his final decision.

Basically, after all of the input that the Cardinal was given regarding our seven parishes, the decision was that all of us would remain in our current structures. In other words, there is no plan to merge or close any of our parishes. We were part of a unique situation in that all of our parishes were meeting and exceeding the benchmarks set up by the Archdiocese. Those benchmarks included an average Mass attendance of at least 800 people per weekend, an average yearly income of at least $750K, and the potential for growth. Of course, all of the numbers are based on pre-COVID situations. Nonetheless, all of our seven parishes were exceeding all of these and so it was anticipated that there would be no need for any merger or closings involving our parishes.

In our own particular case, our average Mass attendance had been just under 2,000 individuals per weekend. We generated well over the $750K benchmark in annual regular income (Sunday and Holy Day collections). And, our campus is well poised to accommodate growth in the parish community. For all of our seven parishes, it is good news and perhaps a sigh of relief that we will not need to go through the painful experience of seeing any of us merge or close. However, this does not mean that there are no challenges facing us.

One of the biggest challenges that was commonly brought up by all the representatives of the seven parishes was the need for stronger evangelization and engaging the youth and young adult population in the area. Our mission—like all other parishes—is to make disciples. We cannot hope to accomplish this if we do not focus more energy and resources on evangelizing as well as forming people into faithful and intentional disciples. This is the key to our continued growth as a parish community. Again, all seven parishes recognized this as a major challenge to all of us.

On a local level, I am constantly and continually exploring ways in which we can accomplish this goal. I have been studying the parish since I started. I know that COVID has made it difficult to know the parish under normal circumstances. Hopefully, now that we are able to open up a little bit more, I can learn the parish life even better. Nonetheless, I am committed to finding ways in which we can strengthen our efforts at evangelization and engaging our youth and young adult population. This will not happen overnight, though. Evangelization in the early Church did not happen instantaneously. The early disciples experienced setbacks and so will we. But, just like the disciples, we need to remain committed. Again, I am continuing to explore and discern the ways in which we can accomplish this goal.

On a larger level, the seven parishes have also brought up the need to continue our conversations beyond Renew My Church. Our recommendation to the Cardinal was that we would form a “visionary council” in the near future. The details of this council are still being worked out. But, what we had in mind was a group of representatives from each parish who would discuss ways in which all seven parishes might work towards a greater collaboration and possibly even sharing of resources. We had come to recognize that gone are the days when faith communities can operate out of the mindset of “every parish for itself.” We are seeing more and more the need to come together and learn to be a parish in a whole new way. Parish boundaries no longer have the same meaning as it once had. We are discovering that unless we find ways to work together, the challenges will become that much more difficult for an individual parish to handle. In other words, we will be exploring ways in which we can truly find strength in numbers.

In terms of Renew My Church, again the Cardinal's announcement is good news. Yet, we still have challenges ahead of us. Currently, I would say that the biggest challenge facing us and each parish of the Archdiocese is bringing people back to church. With the recent changes in civil guidelines, the Archdiocese has allowed parishes to go up to 60% church capacity for Mass. Parishes are also now allowed to host up to 250 people for indoor activities and 500 people for outdoor activities. This means that we can now begin the process of resuming many of the parish activities that we had prior to COVID.

Of course, the question on peoples' minds might be, "how many of our parishioners will come back?" There is a portion of parishioners that will definitely come back and a portion that may never come back. Again, though, I think the immediate challenge that we as a parish need to face is the process of encouraging people to come back to Mass in person as well as to our active parish life. Then, we can explore better the ways in which we need to evangelize and engage (or re-engage in some cases) all of our parishioners both young and old.

These are exciting days ahead of us. We ought to look at things not as challenges that might set us back but, rather, as opportunities to grow stronger in the faith and our discipleship. We may still need to wear face masks for the foreseeable future, but, we can at least take advantage of returning to life as normal – as much as possible.

With Renew My Church and the conversations ahead of us, we can also look at the future ahead as an opportunity to renew ourselves individually and as a parish. Our mandate is still the same, we are to make disciples. Let us remain faithful to that.

Peace,

MAKING GOOD CHOICES

Should I sleep in on my day off or go for a “hiking” trip to Starved Rock State Park? My friend was joking with me that Illinois is as flat as a pancake and therefore I should not use the word “hiking.” Well, I made the decision to go there and it is actually a good place to relax as you can see in this photo!

It is not as steep as Angel’s Landing trail at Zion National Park but it has its own charm and beauty. As I was driving there, I had a second thought, that maybe I should return back to the rectory and rest or should I continue driving for another hour to get there.” Well, brothers and sisters in Christ, we have to make choices very often in our lives. A good way to make good choices is to stop, think and pray about it; then make a good choice and persevere with our decision. St. Ignatius of Loyola once said, “After you have made a decision that is pleasing to God, the devil may try to make you have second thoughts. Intensify your prayer, meditation, and good deeds. For if Satan’s temptations cause you to increase your efforts to grow in holiness, he will have an incentive to leave you alone.” Ignatius is a wise Saint so we are better to follow his advise.

This weekend, I made a good choice to visit one of my former classmates, Deacon Bill Duffert , who will be ordained a priest of Jesus Christ. He is a good friend of mine. We started in the seminary together but he had to stop for two years in order to pay his college debt before continuing his vocation journey. Deacon Bill, or Fr. Bill, at the time you read this, shows me many good examples. He generously and patiently helped me with English and homework when I first came to this country. I do count on him for help at times at Mundelein. Most of all, he shows me how to make good choices (choosing to follow God’s call to be priest) and how to persevere with one’s vocation journey despite challenges in life. I am super thrilled and proud of him and am attending his Ordination and First Mass of Thanksgiving. I ask for your prayers that we all make good choices in life. Please pray for more men to listen and be open to God’s invitation to be a Priest.

By the way...Starved Rock has many stairs and my dogs (feet) were barking after a 4 hour hike!

I LOVE BEING A PRIEST!

Liturgy of the Word

1st Reading

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

Moses said to the people:

"Ask now of the days of old, before your time, ever since God created man upon the earth; ask from one end of the sky to the other:

Did anything so great ever happen before?

Was it ever heard of?

Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live?

Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation,

by testings, by signs and wonders, by war,

with strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors,

all of which the LORD, your God,

did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

This is why you must now know,

and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God

in the heavens above and on earth below,

and that there is no other.

You must keep his statutes and commandments that I enjoin on you today,

that you and your children after you may prosper,

and that you may have long life on the land

which the LORD, your God, is giving you forever."

2nd Reading

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!"

The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ,

if only we suffer with him

so that we may also be glorified with him.

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
All bow: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
All rise: suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified,
died and was buried; he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

FAMILY FAITH SHARING

Today, on the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity wherein we are given the great Commission to “Go and make Disciples.” (Matthew 28:16-20) On this great feast we are invited to remember that God has revealed Himself to us as one God in three persons. As Jesus departed from His disciples, he shared with them the power to make disciples of all nations. He taught them to invite others to share in the Church’s mission by sharing with them the gift of Baptism.

This continues to be the mission of the Church. Each of us who has been baptized shares in the life of the Blessed Trinity and also shares in the Church’s mission of inviting others to share in God’s love. When we make the Sign of the Cross, we name ourselves as Christians as we pray the names of the Trinity – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Sign of the Cross is a symbol of the mission we received at Baptism – to teach all people about Jesus.

CORONAVIRUS COMPASSION

Today, pray a special prayer, beginning and ending with the Sign of the Cross, for all those caregivers assisting those who are recovering from the virus.

THANK YOU, VOLUNTEERS

As we celebrate the end of our Faith Formation year, we thank all of our Catechists and Office Assistants and all the Covid Volunteers!!! Many thanks, to all those who contributed their time and talents in any way to make our Faith Formation program effective. A special “thank you” to all the parents/guardians who entrusted their children to us this year.

MAY IS THE MONTH OF MARY

*Hail Mary, full of grace,
the Lord is with you.
Blessed are you among women,
And blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus.
Holy Mary, Mother of God,
pray for us sinners, now and at the hour
of our death. Amen*

MAY IS MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH

Mental health is an important part of overall health and well-being.

Mental health includes our emotional, psychological, and social well-being.

Our mental health affects how we think, feel, and act. and it also helps determine how we handle stress, relate to others, and make healthy choices. Mental health is important at every stage of life, from childhood and adolescence through adulthood.

CARE FOR CREATION

"All of us can cooperate as instruments of God for the care of Creation."
– Pope Francis

The Anniversary of Laudato Si'

This week is the anniversary of Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato Si': a text of landmark significance and an appeal for us to rethink our relationship with nature.

He reframes the environmental dialogue from a political discussion into language of faith. Creation, the natural world around us, is recognized as a precious gift from God to be revered by all.

The Holy Father invites us to become aware and reflect deeply on the unsustainable environmental degradation around us and its consequences.

Francis extends an "urgent challenge to protect our common home... to bring the whole human family together to seek a sustainable and integral development, for we know that things can change."

The Pope asks us to examine our lifestyles through sound ecological virtues, greater simplicity and less focus on material things.

By reducing excessive consumption and waste in our lives, we can significantly improve care for Creation.

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

"Moving Forward in Hope"

An evening of prayer, connection and hope
Tuesdays once a month. 7:00-8:00 p.m.

The Archdiocesan Commission on Mental Illness is pleased to offer Moving Forward in Hope, a monthly series of evening prayer, connection, and hope. Our goal is to create a safe place for those living with or those caring for someone with mental health concerns to come together to pray and share with one another.

Please reach out to Deacon Tom Lambert at olmcinfo2@aol.com to register for this evening.

Good Saint Dymphna, great wonder-worker in every affliction of mind and body, I humbly implore your powerful intercession with Jesus through Mary, the Health of the Sick, in my present need (mention it). Saint Dymphna, martyr of purity, patroness of those who suffer with nervous and mental afflictions, beloved child of Jesus and Mary, pray to Them for me and obtain my request.

*(Pray one Our Father, one Hail Mary and one Glory Be.)
Saint Dymphna, Virgin and Martyr, pray for us.*

HUMAN CONCERNS

“As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter the words, but to live by them.”

DAYBREAK SHELTER BREAKFAST

Daybreak is a shelter located in Joliet and run by Catholic Charities. For the past 20+ years, St. Julie parishioners have provided a hot delicious breakfast on the first Sunday of the month as well as Christmas morning.

A typical schedule:

5:00am – arrive and begin to prepare breakfast

6:00am – serve breakfast to some very grateful and beautiful people

7:00am – clean up what you used and head home!

The shelter is very clean and the folks there all have chores to do once breakfast is over.

Most teams are home no later than 8:00am. Teams are made up of 5 - 10 people and they decide what to make. It can be very simple, or a bit fancy. It is totally up to the team members. The warmer months there might be 35 people and in the winter we may serve 100+ because of the weather.

This is truly a great ministry for busy people! Everyone has three hours per year to give. Talk to your friends, family and co-workers! Think about it and if you feel this might be a good fit for you or you just have some questions, please give us a call or email. sheila@stjulie.org

Service hours can also be earned.

We thank you and the people of the shelter thank you for your help and your prayers.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Our Ministers have been busy throughout the pandemic! Karen Keller presented Deacon Ed a shawl to commemorate his Diaconate Anniversary and his birthday! The team also presented Fr. Tirso and Fr. Ton with Anniversary Shawls. What a special gift!
